

Finances

PRAMS asks:

What was the total income before taxes for the people living in your household during the 12 months before your delivery? Check the box that was closest to your income. Q. 71

- 54.2% of women reported an income of less than $25,000 per year.
- 45.8% of women reported an income of greater than or equal to $25,000 or more per year.

PRAMS asks:

What were the sources of your household's income during the past 12 months? Q. 70

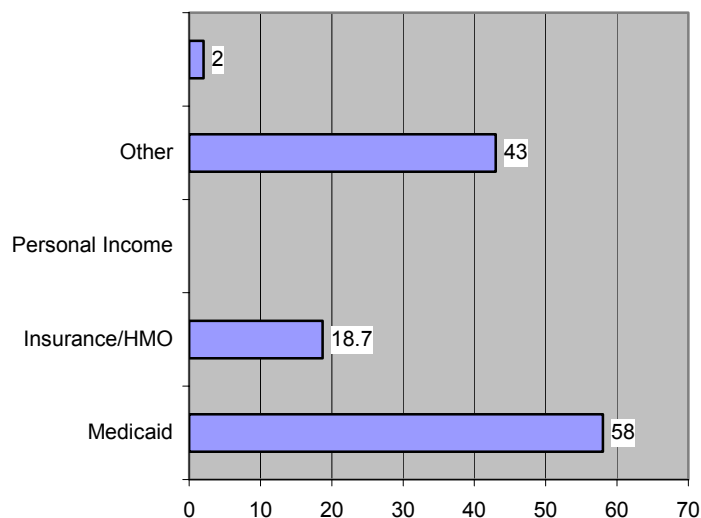

- The most commonly reported sources of income for the 12 months before delivery are:
  - Paycheck or money from a job: 86.7%
  - Aid such as TANF, welfare, public assistance, food stamps, or SSI: 32.3%
  - Money from family or friends: 19.5%

PRAMS asks:

How was your prenatal care paid for? Q. 21

- 58.0% of women reported that their prenatal care was paid by Medicaid.
- 43.0% of women reported that their prenatal care was paid by health insurance or HMO.
- 18.7% of women reported that their prenatal care was paid by personal income.
- 2.0% of women reported that their prenatal care was paid by some other source.

Finances

---

PRAMS asks:

How was your delivery paid for? Q. 45

- 60.2% of women reported that their delivery was paid by Medicaid.
- 41.9% of women reported that their delivery was paid by insurance or HMO.
- 15.7% of women reported that their delivery was paid by personal income.
- 1.7% of women reported that their delivery was paid by some other source.

---

Special Note: Missing Data

Question 71- 10%

Question 70- See Appendix E

Question 21- .68%

Question 45- See Appendix E